Profile

Ecuadorian software developer with 4 years of experience, deepening my skills specializing in web design, backend. The skills acquired in computer science are creating applications for mobile devices, websites, web platforms, landing pages, databases. I like challenges and overcome myself by getting involved in projects without fear of learning new technologies and never missing an opportunity to gain new knowledge, so I can perform tasks of medium and high complexity.

BITPROY (2021 - 2023)

Programmer using web technologies for the frontend as well as native javascript APIs to improve performance and process optimization, development of hybrid mobile applications with React Native – Expo. Web and Mobile Project Supervisor

FREELANCER (2021 - Now)

Programador backend con python usando el framework Flask y aprendiz de Ciencia de datos
